DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 36 and 42 have been examined.
2. Claims 37 - 41 were cancelled in Amendment dated 4/3/2009.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 36 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Metz et al. (US 5,666,293, hereinafter Metz).

5. As per claim 36, Metz teaches the invention as claimed, including an information processing apparatus operating on the basis of a program stored in program storage means, comprising:

receiving means for receiving broadcast waves containing an update program which executes control of said information processing apparatus in place of the stored program in the storage means (i.e., operating system upgrade files are carried by a broadcast channel, see column 4, lines 54-56, column 8, lines 12-29, column 9, lines 2-20, column 10, lines 6-12);

display control means for displaying a message image for providing a notification to a user on a screen (i.e., displaying the "Please Wait" message, see column 9, lines 33-36);

executing means for receiving an operating instruction to operate said information processing apparatus from an input unit and for operating said information processing apparatus

Art Unit: 2193

according to the received operating instruction (see column 4, lines 61-63, column 20, lines 12-31);

update means for updating the stored program with the update program (see Fig 9, column 35, line 5 - column 39, line 20); and control means for controlling said executing means so as not to operate said information processing apparatus according to the operating instruction from the input unit while said update means is updating the program (see column 20, lines 12-31, column 38, lines 6-19; EN: the old operating system is halted during the upgrade and an operating system is required to interpret an input from user), and for controlling said display control means so as to display the message image on the screen, for notifying the user that the operating instruction from said input unit is not executed while said update means is updating the program (i.e., displaying the “Please Wait” message, see column 38, line 62 – column 39, line 11), .

6. As per claim 42, the limitations recited in this method claim are substantially similar to those recited in claim 36. Therefore, it is rejected using the same reasons as claim 36.

Response to Arguments

7. Rejection of claims under §102(b):

8. As per independent claims 36 and 42, Applicants arguments have been fully considered but are moot in light of the new grounds of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP §706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
